What’s the process to renew my license?

When your MH Magazine license is about to expire, we'll send you a reminder email with an easy-to-follow link and instructions on how to renew your license.

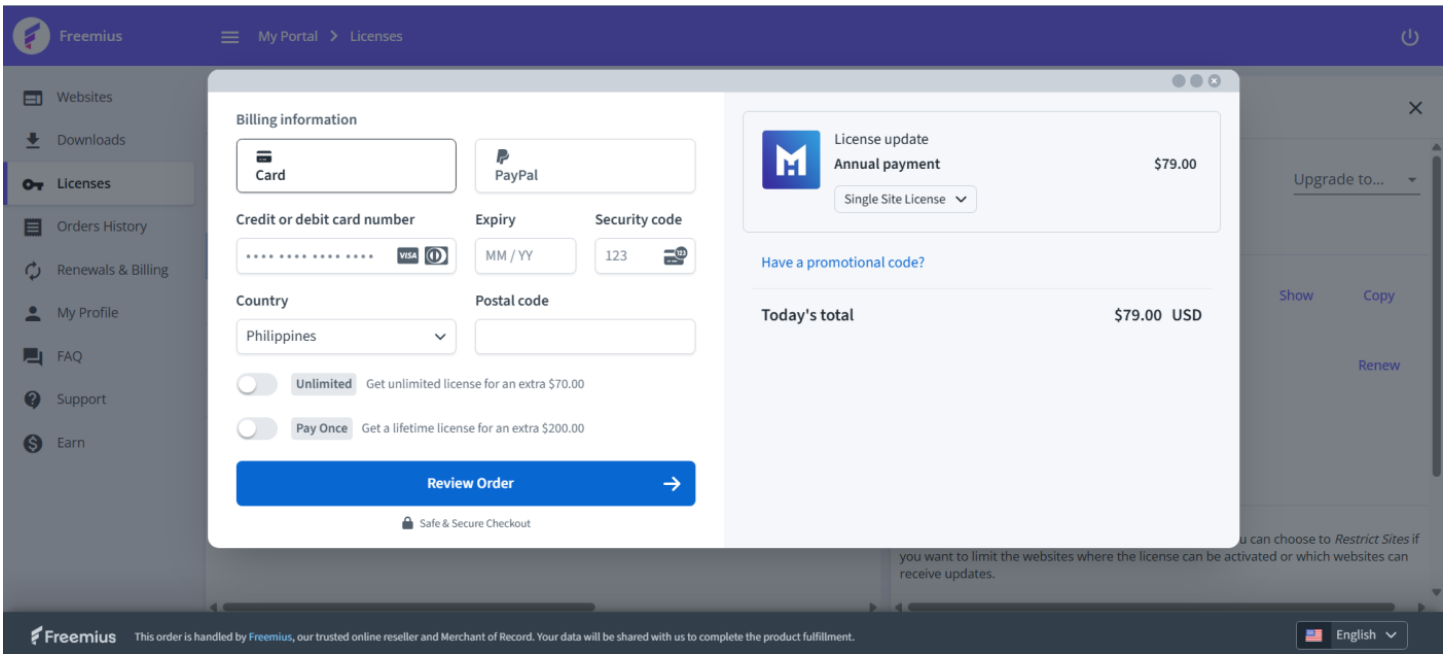

If you don’t see the renewal email or happen to delete it by mistake, no worries! You can still renew your MH Magazine license by logging into your Freemius account.

Once you're logged in, head over to the "Licenses" section in the sidebar. Find the MH Theme subscription you'd like to renew, and simply click the "Renew" button on the right-hand side under the subscription details.

Finish up the renewal by entering your billing information, reviewing your order, and completing the checkout process.

What Happens If My License Expires?

If your MH Magazine license expires, you'll still have access to your current themes and settings, so your website won't be affected. However, you'll lose access to updates, new features, and priority support. To continue receiving the latest features and support, simply renew your license whenever you're ready.
